WELCOME

This year’s series of events offers the opportunity to meet and exchange ideas with others from diverse backgrounds and professional disciplines. Our programs are open to individuals from all areas of interest. They are designed to help you explore the relevance of Jung’s ideas to your life and “Transforming our Lives Together.”

OUR MISSION

The C. G. Jung Society of Sarasota, established in 1995, endeavors to encourage personal growth and raise the consciousness of individuals of all ages. Our lectures, workshops, and small groups focus on the works inspired by the psychology of C. G. Jung.

James Hollis

James Hollis, Ph.D., is a Zurichtrained Jungian analyst in private practice in Washington,

D. C., where he is also Executive Director of the Jung Society of Washington. He has written

Bob Waxman, Ph.D., has been the Director of The Open Center in Sarasota since 1990. He is an author—Kabbalah Simply

Stated, (7) Principles of Esoteric

Philosophy, and The Meaning and The Message. He is also an educator and featured speaker on comparative spirituality, transpersonal psychology, and esoteric philosophy. Bob has been interviewed on national TV and radio. He explains the mysteries, hidden meanings, and similarities in ancient and modern spiritual traditions with humor and simplicity.

Elaine Mansfield

Since 1970, Elaine Mansfield has been a student of Jung, mythology, dreams, and meditation. She has worked with Marion Woodman, Robert Bosnak, and other Jungian teachers. Since the death of her husband, Elaine has focused on the inner journey of grief as an initiation and has become a hospice bereavement group leader. Her insights are explained in her book Leaning into Love: A Spiritual Journey through Grief and a TEDx talk: “Good Grief! What I Learned from Loss.”

2015-2016 FILM SALON
Jan. 15 – 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. Felix and Meira Presented by Peter Lindstrom. While filming an international movie about peace in Hiroshima, a married French actress unexpectedly meets an Italian baker. Both are exiled from their homelands at a young age, in the midst of two world wars. Their relationship deepens as their lives intersect in a local bakery.

Feb. 12 – 11 a.m. – 3 p.m. Into the Woods Presented by Mike Epperley. Into the Woods is a modern twist on the beloved Brothers Grimm fairy tales in a musical told by a wolf who tells the story. This fairy tale retelling will take you on a musical romp through the past, present and future.

Feb. 26 – 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. Rapunzel Presented by Peter Lindstrom. This film is another twist on the beloved Brothers Grimm fairy tales, this time following the story of a young woman who is trapped in a tower.

Mar. 4 – 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. Lars and the Real Girl Presented by Peter Lindstrom. This film is about an unfashionable young man in a small northern town who finds himself in love with a doll.

MARIE STORBLOM’S DREAM GROUPS
Continued Dreams Group & Beginning Dream Group
August 17, 8:45 p.m. – 10:15 p.m.
Facilitated by Marie Storbloom. Participants in the dreams groups are asked to bring a dream journal and be willing to share their dreams with the group.
